

GAO Cong

Lawyer

city:
Beijing

phone:
010-8287 0288

e-mail:
gaocong@baclaw.cn

Professional expertise

Marriage and family, civil litigation, wealth management

---

Personal Profile

Personal Profile:

Education: Master in Civil and Commercial Law, Renmin University of China

Specially invited family lawyer for Third Mediation Room of Beijing Radio and Television Station

Specialized marriage lawyer for Police and Law Online of Radio Beijing

Member of the Female Lawyer Work Committee of the Haidian District Lawyers Association of Beijing

Engaging in the field of civil litigation for over 10 years, Ms. GAO focuses on marriage and family affairs, prevention of private legal risks, and corporate businesses.

Marriage and family affairs: After representing clients in hundreds of marriage and family cases, Ms. GAO has accumulated rich practical experience in marriage, inheritance, family wealth inheritance, private wealth management, etc. Being good at combining litigation experience with various wealth management tools, Ms. GAO handled several complicated and difficult cases with a high amount or cross fields, and was highly praised by clients for her professional and unique legal insights. In the litigation field, Ms. GAO specializes in the division of real estate, equity interests (stocks), and other properties, custody of child, private lending (creditor's rights and debts) disputes, post-divorce property dispute, division of properties, inheritance disputes, etc.

In the non-litigation field, Ms. GAO specializes in designing provisions for property agreements (before and after marriage), drafting divorce agreements, wealth planning, etc.

Corporate business: Provided constant legal consulting services for many companies concerning compliant contracts for business operation, dispute resolution, handling of labor disputes, commercial negotiation, designing of shareholding structure, equity incentives, funds, investments, financing, etc.

---

Representative performance

Divorce dispute: Facing the husband, being a senior officer of a company, who had cohabited with a third person for months, Ms. GAO successfully initiated the divorce lawsuit for the wife and acquired the real estate purchased during marriage, equity interests, and mental compensation;

Divorce dispute: On the background that one party had transferred millions of properties, represented the other party to change the judgment in the trial of the second instance to win properties there were more than doubled from those in the first instance;

Division of equity interests: Facing the husband who concealed equity interests in multiple companies when divorcing the housewife, Ms. GAO helped the wife win the equity interests with the value of over 10 million;

Division of real estate: On the background that the over 10 real estate properties jointly owned by the couple were registered in the name of the husband, Ms. GAO helped the wife to get compensation in the amount of over 10 million;

Foreign-related divorce: In the case of living apart in different countries after marriage, successfully helped a party to solve the matters on custody of the child and division of real estate;

Damages: After divorce, the husband learned that the child borne during his marriage was not his biological child; Ms. GAO helped the husband recover child support payments and get mental compensation;

Contract dispute: Invalidated the agreement on leaving the marriage with nothing, and submitted evidence to prove that the counterparty had transferred over 10 million of properties, so as to get 70% properties for the client;

Custody of child: On the background of living apart for a long period of time after marriage and the wife raised the child on her own, helped the wife to get the custody of the child and claimed payment for education, medical, and other expenses during the separation period from the counterparty;

Inheritance dispute: Despite the will that was presented by the counterparty and written by others on behalf of the deceased, helped the client invalidate the will and get the heritage;

Division of family properties: Facing the husband who concealed relocation policies and refused to fulfill the divorce agreement, helped the wife get the resettlement apartment and a half of the relocation compensation;

Usufructuary right: On the background that the counterparty occupied the resettlement property exclusively, helped the client get the right to live in the resettlement property;

Private lending: After the parents made payments for purchasing an apartment for their son, the daughter-in-law claimed that such payments were gifts; Ms. GAO helped the parents to recover the funds lent for purchasing the apartment;

Dispute over property rights: Given that property presented as a gift by the parents was occupied by another child for a long period of time, Ms. GAO helped the client take back the property and get the exclusive right to use such property;

Dispute over confirmation of contract invalidation: On the background that the husband maliciously transferred the joint properties of the husband and wife to a third person, helped the wife to recover all the properties from the third person;

Mediation on cohabitation: The property purchased with 90% funds paid by the client during cohabitation was registered in the name of the counterparty; after the separation of the client and the counterparty, helped the client retain the property with the compensation of only RMB 100,000 to the counterparty.